Legal Aid Alberta

Legal Aid Alberta (LAA) is a not-for-profit organization that provides legal representation and support for Albertans facing legal issues.

A registered society incorporated under the provincial Societies Act, LAA is independent from government but accountable to Alberta's Minister of Justice and Solicitor General and to the Law Society of Alberta.

LAA provides legal services to clients in support of fairness in Alberta's justice system—services that help ensure Albertans in all circumstances understand and can defend their legal rights.

LAA operates on a hybrid service delivery model. LAA staff provide legal and other support services directly to Albertans, while the remaining services are provided by LAA roster lawyers. Members of the roster are independent Alberta lawyers who have registered with LAA to provide services on behalf of the organization.

Within its mandate, LAA is uniquely positioned to provide services that have a positive impact on the justice system and the lives of Albertans. This includes services like duty counsel for all Albertans in courtrooms and elsewhere, services in support of emergency protection orders, services for Indigenous Albertans at the Siksika Nation, and support workers for youth and families in crisis.

LAA also provides legal services to those who do not qualify, on behalf of the Ministry of Justice and Solicitor General, when directed to do so by the courts. LAA strives to be an employer of choice and a centre of excellence where employees are, and are recognized to be, some of the top experts in their fields. They are committed to sharing knowledge within the legal community, working to support improvements to the Alberta judicial system.

Working with their funding partners, stakeholders, and community, LAA provides targeted training for practising Alberta lawyers and the legal community on a range of topics, with the goal of better outcomes for the clients they represent.

Strategic Plan - Making a Difference

Everything we do at Legal Aid Alberta helps support Albertans as they face some of the most challenging times in their lives.

We help to enhance fairness in the justice system. We help young people get their lives back on track. We help broken families pick up the pieces and stand up strong on their own.

Our staff see the incredible challenges our clients face, and in helping them overcome these challenges they make a meaningful, positive difference in the lives of Albertans every day. As an organization, we have a proud history going back nearly 50 years. We make up just one of many parts of Alberta's justice system, but the contributions we make continue to have an enormous impact on the system.

The Strategic Plan will guide the organization and will help the LAA team work together effectively and ensure we continue to play a vital role in Alberta communities and the province's justice system.

This Strategic Plan envisions LAA as a client-focused Centre of Excellence that contributes to an Alberta where everyone can understand and exercise their legal rights. We describe what we envision LAA to look like in the future, and the strategic priorities we need to focus on to achieve this future state. We identify significant areas where we believe we must improve within the next three years, what we will do about each, and how we will measure our success along the way.

The three-year rolling plan that will be updated annually and reviewed regularly by our Board of Directors and senior management team. It will drive our annual business plan and budget, and ensure that as we carry out our operations, we also remain focused on our broader goals and strategic direction. It will help us ensure we continue to remain focused on our mandate and fulfill our obligations as set out in our Governance Agreement.

The plan is also intended to provide insights for our many community partners and stakeholders who we recognize as being integral to our success. By publicly setting goals for our organization and expressing the long-term direction we intend to follow, this plan will help us more effectively work together as part of Alberta's larger justice system community.
